Public Policy Engagement & Corporate Political Contributions

As an energy and services provider that primarily operates in competitive markets, public policy can significantly affect our business and industry. Accordingly, NRG, like most businesses, belongs to organizations and trade associations that may engage in lobbying activities to support initiatives relevant to our business.

Based on a review of the Company's internal records and discussions with senior management, the below list includes membership organizations, trade associations, and social welfare organizations: (1) to which NRG paid annual dues in 2023 of $25,000 or more; and (2) which were registered to lobby at the state or federal levels and who did, in fact, engage in such lobbying; as well as the total amount paid to such organizations in 2023.

- Advanced Energy Management Alliance $30,000
- Advanced Energy United $42,500
- Allegheny Conference $25,600
- Alliance for Energy Choice $36,000
- American Council on Renewable Energy $27,500
- Association of Electric Companies of Texas $350,000
- Business Council for Sustainable Energy $55,250
- Clean Energy Buyers Alliance $25,000
- Coalition for Renewable Natural Gas $34,000
